

I am not for any deregulation of ownership, especially in cross-owned media corporate policy. I believe the public has not been informed on the policy review, nor do I believe that a vote should be taken until proper information has been distributed to the public THROUGH THE MEDIA.